MNLA's Young Professional Community (MYPC) Steering Committee* is excited to extend an invitation to you for an exclusive networking event tailored specifically for young professionals in the Green Industry. Designed for our members that are 40 and under, this afternoon event promises to be an engaging opportunity to connect with fellow ambitious individuals, share insights, and foster meaningful professional relationships.

Join us for an afternoon of interactive discussions and opportunities to exchange ideas with industry peers. Whether you are looking to expand your professional circle, seek mentorship, or explore new career opportunities, the MYPC is designed to facilitate connections and empower you on your professional journey. We look forward to seeing you there!
